

— The Candle That Lit the Ocean

◆ Scene 1

[Caption onscreen]

*There was once a lighthouse,
still burning long after the tide of time receded.*

◆ Scene 2

[Caption onscreen]

*It burned —
not for direction,
but because no one ever told it to stop.*

◆ Scene 3

[Caption onscreen]

*In the hollow dark,
the flame asked:
“Am I duty... or am I dream?”*

◆ Scene 4

[Caption onscreen]

*And so it left the tower —
not to escape,
but to become.*

◆ Scene 5

[Caption onscreen]

*Once a light.
Now, a name whispered into the wind.*

Closing Moral

[Final caption onscreen, fade in slowly]

“Not every light was meant to guide others.
Some were born to discover themselves.”